

imPROVEN: BUILD BETTER!

Top 6 Rcrane Build Better Facts.

Rcrane there is no safer or more productive way to ship and erect bridge and track materials.

Four corners of support eliminate tipping risks and provide the balance, stability and strength to erect longer and heavier bridge and track panels. Reducing number of foundations.

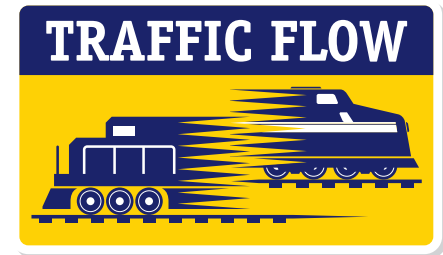

Rflats deliver then Rmules transfer bridge and track panels and materials in a fast, continuous and complete process to do more work during track time.

More production on track reduces interruption and delay expenses while minimizing access road and job site preparation expenses.

Over ten years of development, testing and successful live track operations along with complete back-up systems and spare parts on board provide unprecedented reliability.

The ability to erect long bridge spans, and transport all bridge and track materials, will dramatically reduce the interruptions to rail traffic.

www.r-crane.com